

www.associatedcontent.com

Original Story URL:

http://www.associatedcontent.com/article/124943/romantic_dining_st_louis_bristol_seafood.html

Romantic Dining St. Louis: Bristol Seafood Grill

By Chloe Xanthis, published Jan 24, 2007

Published Content: 191 Total Views: 431,471 Favorited By: 41 CPs

If you or your sweetheart are seafood fanatics Bristol Seafood Grill is the perfect romantic restaurant for you! Bristol Seafood Grill has two locations in the St. Louis area, in Creve Couer and O'Fallon. Both restaurants offer a casual environment where you can enjoy some of the freshest seafood to be found in the St. Louis area. Although both restaurants are large in size, it's still easy to enjoy an intimate dinner at Bristol's. Both Bristol Seafood Grill locations are busy, especially on weekends, so reservations are recommended. The wait staff is continuously on the go, but they seem to show up to your table at just the right times. You definitely won't be disappointed if you choose Bristol's for your next romantic dinner out- especially if you love seafood!

Soon after you are seated at your table you will receive one of the most delicious parts of the meal, cheese-herb drop biscuits. The biscuits are great at holding you over until your appetizer comes, and Bristol's has some great choices in that department. Bristol Seafood Grill offers over 10 different appetizers, and every one I have tried has been delicious! I especially love Bristol's Jumbo Lump Crab Cake appetizer, which is moist and slightly sweet with it's accompaniment of mango tarter sauce. Both the Calamari and Mussels are also great appetizer choices at Bristol Seafood Grill. Bristol's also offers both soups and salads if you prefer a light appetizer. The fresh Mozzarella and Grape Tomato salad is to die for, as is the Spicy Creole Gumbo!